Public Comment

Ed Uehling, Las Vegas, spoke concerning the Authority's budget and projected revenue reductions due to the pandemic. He said that water conservation reduces water revenues. He said that the Authority should be finding ways to sell more water instead of trying to curb water use. He also discussed the Integrated Resource Planning Advisory Committee process.

Director Lee thanked the Clark County Commission for coordinating with the City of North Las Vegas to help utility customers having trouble paying their water and sewer bills. He said that he would also like to see the Integrated Resource Planning Advisory Committee 2020 bring its recommendations to the Authority Board of Directors. Chair Kirkpatrick said that IRPAC 2020 should reconvene to review its recommendations given the impacts of the pandemic and then bring recommendations to the Board following that review. Vice Chair Stewart thanked the Clark County Commission for its assistance to the City of Henderson, as well.
